KIDDIES FROLIC WAS A VERY HAPPY EVENT

A very merry assembly of over two hundred children gathered last Friday at the Memorial Hall to display themselves in fancy costumes and enjoy themselves to their heart's content. The first Children's Frolic was a great success; everyone entered into the spirit of the evening, and seemed to have no trouble in having a good time.

The younger children played games until 9 p.m. when the lights were lowered, the curtains drawn back, and a finely lighted Christmas tree became the object of their admiration. The Old Santa Claus came from behind the tree and distributed a bag of some thing good to eat to all. From then on the fun was in full swing, and fast and furious at times. The judges were in a dilemma in selecting the winners, but judging by the applause their decision received, their choice was popular. Great care and originality was displayed in the costumes and the way that the various characters were acted, put the other folk in the background.

After the little ones had had supper, the evening was one of rollicking hilarity and the gay dresses and gaily decorated hall made it a fine colorful scene.

There was no question of the supper being a good one, many were not coming back home, many were waiting for the ice cream and lemonade.

The music put everyone in the best humor. This community endeavour is mainly for the unparading efforts of the I.O.D.E., who undertook the entire arrangements for the evening. They are to be heartily congratulated on their success. The merchants made possible the prizes with their donations, and a special vote of thanks is due to the fine manner in which the orchestra consisting of Miss P. Garrett and J. Gannon contributed to the pleasure of the evening by their cheerful and bright music of playing tunes to suit the occasion.

The committees of the I.O.D.E. in charge of arrangements were: General committee—Mesdames French, Quinn, Freeman, Moore and Miss Kuyvet; Mesdames Quirin, Behan, N. Scheer and Sorenson.

The committee of members from the Canadian Legion consisted of Messrs S. H. Crowther, A. D. Shrimpton, T. B. Winter, H. McGregor, J. A. French, P. Wright, G. H. Brown, and W. S. Patterson.

The prize winners were as follows: Class I, 4 to 9 Years

Best dressed girl—Frances Jones (the Fire-Fly).

Best dressed boy—Annie McGregor (the Fishbone).

Most original girl—Joyce Moore (the Old-fashioned Lady).

Most original boy—Hector MacLean (the Old-fashioned Gentleman).

Comic girls costume—Bobby Seales (Toys).

Comic boys costume—Allister McGregor (the Farmer).

Class II, 10 to 13 Years

Berta Vale Xmas Tree

On Friday night, a Xmas Tree celebration took place at Berta Vale School, and was an unqualified success.

Chairman Clifford Way was in fine form, and delighted the audience of between sixty and seventy with his pleasant remarks.

B. Hunter and J. Bonneau de serve no little credit for the arrangement of the decorations, which were quite artistic.

A splendid program of choruses, dialogues and recitations were aptly rendered.

A series of games arranged under the direction of Mrs. Galpin delighted the youngsters, and created no little interest for the adults.

A most interesting feature of the entertainment was the recitation of several recitations by a number of the little Dutch children, many of whom only arrived from Holland last Spring and at the time did not understand a word.

SCHOOL CONCERT WAS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

The Strathmore School concert which was presented on Thursday night, was a grand success, not only financially, the sum of nearly one hundred dollars gross being realised, but what was more important, the rendering of a most interesting program which delighted everyone present, and brought to the attention of every parent present, the immense amount of time and interest which the teaching staff had given in the preparation.

Another very interesting part was the preparation of the costumes for all those taking part, which gave evidence of the practical use of the aid of the parents and friends of the pupils, which must have been very gratifying to principal Crowther.

A very satisfactory feature was the arrangement made for the prompt appearance on the platform of each act, all taking part, demonstrating the painstaking matter of organisation.

The presentation to Principal Crowther and his staff, was a most interesting and successful one, and the hearty applause which followed proved without a shadow of doubt the good will and appreciation by the parents of their splendid work, not only in the school, but as citizens.

Mr. Crowther, in his reply of thanks, expressed in no uncertain words, his opinion in regards to the very excellent type of boys and girls in attendance, of whom he was extremely proud.

The drills and choruses were splendidly given, and the piano solos by Miss Mayne Seales and Muriel McDonald thoroughly enjoyed, while the recitations by Yvonne Prince, Jean Morris, Bert Freeman and Andrew Garrett made real home to the audience; no doubt the latter's father will have several visitors during the festive season; Ray Prince had better keep an eye on that girl.

In the "Old Woman's Song" Margaret Carlson and Allister McGregor were decidedly bright and clever in their parts.

The Minstrel farce "In Camp" given by Cliff Beyer, Billy Keating, John Rigdon, Frederick Hildy and Carl Sorenson went over splendidly, and the nature sketches on Strathmore are surely in sight.

John Garrett and Jean Prince were very popular in their presentation of "Little Tale", in which each of them thoroughly enjoyed the work of their respective parts.

Little Francis Jones was a very general favorite with the audience, in the drills and especially so in the Candle Drill, in which she took her part most gracefully.

Hestia Kuyvet, Muriel Anderson, Bobby Brown and Bert Freeman were a clever quartet in the presentation of "Jolly Old St. Nick".

A real feature of the evening was the musical drill by the senior girls, with the addition of some clever clapping swinging by Imogene Colby and Tena Glenndinning, accompanied cleverly by Violet Hays as pianist.

The piano duet by Elsie Sorenson and Bernice Whiteside was cleverly executed and received a splendid reception.

John Garrett as "Macbeth", captured the audience in his clever interpretation.

The presentation of the prizes for perfect attendance, medal and shield in connection with the School Fair sports, by Chairman French, created no little interest with the audience.

Prizes for perfect attendance were presented as follows: Helen French, Bernice Whiteside, Dorothy Christensen, Rhoda Wolman; Room 5, Harold Freeman; Room 6, Imogene Colby.

Best exhibit from Strathmore School at 1929 School Fair—Alberta North.

Children receiving shillings on behalf of the School: Helen French, Bernice Whiteside, Dorothy Christensen, Rhoda Wolman; Room 5, Harold Freeman; Room 6, Imogene Colby.

Medals for obtaining 100% points at sports: Helen French.

WEDDING

GALBRAITH — HARVEY

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place in the Presbyterian Church in Calgary on Wednesday, December 19th, when Alice, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Strathmore, became the bride of Mr. Clark Galbraith.

The bride looked very girlish and charming in her bridal robe of white, and wearing her grandmother's wedding veil of old limerick lace, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of Ophele roses.

The bridemaids were very lovely in pastel shades gowns. Miss Harvey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore rose gowns with becoming Gainsborough picture hat to match, and carried pink carnations.

Miss Taton, the organist, was gowned in green georgette, and carried a large bouquet of carnations.

Little Miss Vera Harris made a winsome flower girl in blue georgette.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Stewart Galbraith.

The lovely strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were played very beautifully by the organist.

A reception, attended by about seventy guests, was held in the Board of Trade Rooms. Mrs. Harvey, mother of the bride, wore a handsome creation of black cut velvet with corsage of crimson roses.

The happy couple left later for their honeymoon, the bride's going away costume being navy blue with touches of red.

ERVAST IS TIJUANA SENSATION

TIJUANA, Mex.—Ervast, a speedy son of Tijuana-Blind Beauty is proving to be a real sensation at the Mexican course. Furthermore are wondering just how fast he can run and if he will be able to pack weight and keep up his fine performance.

Ervast electrified the crowd by running five furlongs in 1:25, winning in a common canter. He came right back in the Hollywood Handicap and ran five and one-half furlongs in 1:05.46. At the finish he was five lengths in front of Infinito, which in turn held Doctor Hug safe for third money. Ervast is the property of Baron Long and is a prize favorite here as a result of his fine performances. Previously he had won two races at Tijuana. His score is now four victories in a row. Trainers admit that it will take a whirlwind to beat him to the wire.

GARDINER TO PLAY

TORONTO—Ottawa slipped to the bottom of the heap when Canadians won one of those surprise victories. The Maroons came sloshing back to the top when Nels Stewart, produced on by the presence of Dave Trotter in reserve, swung into the scoring lead, and gave Spanish royalty a chance to forget all about bullfights by breezing two pucks by Roach in the Ranger net.

The most significant news coming out in some time was that the Canadian, or rather Leo Dandurand, had relented in his purpose to keep Herb Gardiner chained to the Canadian bench, and would allow him to play. Inside stories are to the effect that Gardiner had no particular fond of roses in Chicago, and that he had to get rid of Mackay and Reals, who had managerial ambitions. Kenta was sent to Tulsa, and the Chicago club actually secured money for him, while Mackay went to Pittsburgh. The Hawks defeated Pittsburgh for their first victory and they have high hopes of getting somewhere. Their home manager, Tobin, signed up Harold March, a speedy junior last year with Regina, for a sum reported to be the greatest ever given for an amateur star. They are all signed that way. March is fast but light. Tobin never having apparently heard that this is the era of the road big man in hockey. The kid will need seasoning, but Tobin predicts he will be a great star before the season is out.

Locals

Are you thinking about building? Let the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal help you. Write to the Farm Buildings Department.

Among the latest to join nine local invalid list is Douglas Shrimpton, who is working overtime to be as fit as a fiddle for New Year's day.

Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDonald, fell by the wayside in coast with Mr. Pine, and was unable to do full justice to the family turkey on Xmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey left for Victoria on Friday, to spend the holidays with Mrs. Harvey's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Perry entertained at a delightful Christmas dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. Gatenby.

Mrs. McGregor has been on the invalid list, but insists that she will be fit again by New Year's Day, when Scotland expects every man to be fit.

"Well, well," said W. S. Patterson, "here we are again, arranging and planning for the Canadian Legion New Year's Eve Dance in the Memorial Hall, and if this California weather improved model continues, the hall will not be able to hold them all."

Mr. and Mrs. Howe Harvey will be at their country home, Hamilton Grange, for the next three weeks, and will be pleased to have any friends visit them at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sarsons of Ardmore, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter at Miss Marchant's Hospital, also a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harry De Gitt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Maclean and family of Calgary, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore for the holidays.

The I.O.D.E. members are busy completing the arrangements for the supper for the Canadian Legion New Year's Eve Dance, when they hope to excel last year, if that is possible. The Legion and "Idolines" are a great team, so be sure to be with them in this happy event.

John Vernon and Percy Parish were having an argument on Wednesday regarding their respective nationalities, when John informed the audience that his great grandfather was an Englishman, but that he was a poor fish. It seems the old gentleman was very wealthy, but when he passed on, he failed to remember John in his last will and testament, since which time John likes to express his feelings in the matter.

Mrs. Jos. Van Tighem has been on the invalid list, a victim of flu, but is recovering nicely.

Get Sir Hubert Gough: "I've just brought forth a veritable flood of noble self-sacrifice and unselfish devotion. But do not let us imagine that it was only necessary for the duration of the war." It is as necessary today in peace as it was in those four hard years of struggle."

Bishop of Manchester: "No selfish plan or policy can ever attain success, because it is in opposition to the supreme power, and the only way to succeed is to look for opportunities, not of gain, but of service."

Prof. Frederick Bodner: "People who are regularly employed and who see an acknowledgment on the part of government authorities of their human rights—are not ripe for any such thing as the dictatorship of the proletariat."
